

Writing with Our Goals In Mind

1. Use checklist to set goals. Look at my entry.

"Starting To" or "Not Yet"!

2. List goals I want to work on.

Next blank page in notebook!

Persuasive Writing Checklist (Grade 3)		Yes	Starting To	Not Yet
Overall	Has reader my opinion with reasons to support it?
Content	In the beginning related my position and used a quality word(s) to get my reader's attention?
Transitions	Connected my ideas and reasons with my explanation using words like for example and because?
Ending	Connected my reason for example to another using words like also and another reason is?
Organization	Gave a suggestion for making a change?
	Wrote several reasons or descriptions why people should agree with my position, and wrote at least several sentences about each reason?
	Organized my information so that each part of my writing is easy to read and follow. Significantly added to grade 2 skills

3. Write an entry for How I can practice some of the goals I chose.

I want to work on...

I can do this by...

4. In my notebook draft keeping goals in mind!

