

#1

Zoe

Did you know kids suffer all most every day in school. And I think every child deserves to come into school and think "I will have a fun day at school" and not think "another day of suffering." Kids suffer from having no nurse. Just having to cry when they get hurt. And we have a nurse and we have what we need and we still won't appreciate it. Some people think I am just a child so I can't fix anything. And I am a child and I still appreciate what I have because I can be one of those children. In one of those schools suffering with no nurse. So think about your children and your future children suffering with no nurse. And when I think about it I don't feel

(PP)

#2
zee

good So that's why you need to appreciate what you have and STOP wanting more. Did you know

(PP)

how long Mrs. Rashboub went to school just to help us.
She went to school for about 3 years just to help us. And going to school to be a nurse takes a lot of studying. I know that because my cousin just graduated from college to be a nurse and she studied day and night. It is hard for some people like me don't even have inuff patins to even sit there and studdle for 5 minuts. and belive me I am not joking. So those are some reasons why we need to appreciate Mrs. Rashboub

(PP)

Another reason we need
to appreciate Mrs. Rashboub

#3 is so she will buy
Zoe more fun products.
By fun products I mean cool shaped ice-packs or colored cream to cheer people up when they get hurt. Another reason we

(PP) should appreciate Mrs. Rashbawb is because when she is her Mrs. Pensak does not have to worry if any student is about to fall because they broke their ankle or if they will faint because they are disoriented. But Mrs. Rashbawb does

(PP) not only help students she also helps teachers.
For example one time Mrs. Bhar fell on the stairs after she went straight to Mrs. Rashbawb. Mrs. Rashbawb gave her band-aids and ice-packs. Those are a few more reasons why we need to appreciate
Mrs. Rashbawb.

4/10 But if we don't appreciate Zoe Mrs. Rashboub she won't do anything for us. Like by fan products. She also (PP) will quit her job. And we do not want her to quit her job. If she quits her job our school will be unsafe.
By unsafe I mean know one will know what to do when a student gets hurt. For example one time Mrs. Rashboub was home sick so Mrs. Pensak had to send all the students in the nurses office home. That's why Mrs. Rashboub needs noteworthy. So a couple of (PP) weeks ago I went to a second grade class and took a survey of 14 students. The first question I asked them was "Has Mrs. Rashboub ever helped you". 12 of those

#5
Zoe

Student's said that Mrs. Rashbowb has helped them, 2 of them said that Mrs. Rashbowb never helped them. Amagin if all 12 of those student's said "thank you" to Mrs. Rashbowb how good it would be. The second question I asked was did you go to the nurse less then 10 times or more then 10 times. 7 of them said more then 10 times and 7 of them said less then 10 times. Amagin if 7 children who said more then 10 time how many thank you's Mrs. Rashbowb would of gotten. Another reason we need to give Mrs. Rashbowb noteworthy is because she is very nice. Mrs. Rashbowb would die for sombody's life that's how caring Mrs. Rashbowb is.

#6

Zoe

When ever I go to the doctor the nurses are never as nice as Mrs. Rashboub. Even all the other schools that I went to the nurses were never as nice as Mrs. Rashboub.
When ever I go to
Mrs. Rashboub she alway put's cream on me or gives me an ice-pack. That's why ~~you need to appreciate~~
Mrs. Rashboub.