

Panel Format (20 minutes)

1. Presenters introduce themselves then share their ideas, one at a time.
2. Audience responds orally with questions and comments; presenters take turns addressing comments and facilitating conversation.
3. Audience responds in writing—jots on scrap of paper the position they take on the topic, whether that position changed as a result of the panel and any other feedback. Feedback is left behind at end of session.